| Highlights | Antioch Urban Ministries Inc. (AUMI) will establish a new IDA program and offer 425 IDAs: 350 for homeownership and 75 for postsecondary education. The match rate will be $2 to $1, up to $2,000 in participant savings. AUMI will offer IDAs primarily to participants in the church's family enrichment, fatherhood, pre-marital, and marriage counseling programs. |
| Target Population | Metro Atlanta counties of Dekalb, Clayton, Cobb, Fulton, and Gwinnett Counties. |
| Grantee/Collaborative Description | AUMI was incorporated in 1991 as a nonprofit, charitable organization, serving as an advocacy agency for the relief of the poor and disadvantaged. The organization currently operates over 20 programs, such as comprehensive substance abuse recovery services to persons who are homeless, have low incomes, have been recently released from incarceration, and/or are living with HIV/AIDS or TB. The financial institution partner for the IDA endeavor is Bank of America. |
